

Golden Membership Attestation Form

Thank you for your interest in becoming a member of New York Women in Communications – the premier organization for female communications professionals.

As a Golden Professional, this complimentary membership level applies to retired professionals who wish to support and be involved in the NYWICI community. You've gained a significant wealth of knowledge throughout your career and your guidance and wisdom is sought after by those coming up in the industry. This is your opportunity to give back and stay connected to what's happening in the communications/media landscape.

In order to qualify for this category of membership, you must sign an official statement annually attesting to your status as retired in order to renew your membership.

By signing below, I affirm that I meet all the qualifications for retired membership as listed below:

- I have completed at least 20 years of my professional career within the communications field.
- I no longer work full time in an occupation related to communications.
